

*Be still,
and know that I am
GOD.*

On our 2013 Lenten journey, Solidarity with Sisters members will pause together every Tuesday, seeking the stillness of God's presence-- ever hopeful that the doctrinal assessment of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR) will be resolved in a way that will inspire the faithful and nourish LCWR leadership.

We invite you, our brother in Christ, to join us in the stillness, so that together we might hear God's voice and be open to transformation.

May this Lenten season bless you with quiet graces in your difficult work.

With sincere appreciation for your own life in Christ,

Solidarity with Sisters (a DC-based lay group)

Solidarity with Sisters is a grassroots group of lay people. Our goal (in the words of LCWR past president Sister Pat Farrell, OSF) is "to go forward with truthfulness and integrity, in a way that contributes to the good of religious life everywhere and to the healing of the fractured Church we so love."
