

And they were all filled with the HOLY SPIRIT and began to speak

in different tongues
as the

SPIRIT enabled them to proclaim. (Acts 2:4)

The lives of women religious proclaim Christ's love, mercy, and wisdom to the world.
In them we experience the light and power of the Holy Spirit.

We look to you, our brother in Christ, to be filled with the Spirit as you live your ministry.

Stand with us to support the Leadership Conference of Women Religious.
Urge the withdrawal of the 2012 doctrinal assessment by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith.

*Solidarity with Sisters is a grassroots group of lay people. Our goal (in the words of LCWR past president Sister Pat Farrell, OSF) is "to go forward with truthfulness and integrity, in a way that contributes to the good of religious life everywhere and to the healing of the fractured Church we so love."
